

Visit a place of worship

Winners 2009

Foundation
stage
winners

Early Years Foundation Stage

Aku-Sika

From Vicarage
reception class won best individual response for her lovely picture of the church with so much detail in it.

Darshan
from Hartley Primary won joint best runner up for individual work in the Early Years
Foundation
Stage

The judges
loved the detail and colour of his drawing.

Sakeeha from Selwyn primary also won joint runner up for best individual work in the early years foundation stage

Winners of the best class response were Reception class at Essex, for their Diwali and Eid books made by the classes.

The judges particularly liked the collaborative nature of the work, and how the books captures the children's experiences and thoughts

Joint winners of the runners up best class response at Foundation stage were Reception class at Hartley Primary for their class collage of St Bartholomew's church which they visited.

The judges particularly liked the collaborative a work as well as the children's obvious enjoyment of the visit they had been on.

Joint winners of the runners up best class response at Foundation stage were Reception class at Southern Road Primary for their class work on Hinduism.

The judges particularly liked the collaborative a work as well as the children's obvious enjoyment of the visit they had been on to the Temple.

Early years Foundation Stage Best overall school/nursery winners Hallsville Primary for all their work throughout the Visit a place of worship week. The Judges loved the statues, models and work the children had done using clay which flowed from their visits to places of worship.

Key Stage
One
winners

Individual winner of Key stage one Jennifer from Upton Cross
Primary.

The judges
commented on how well Jennifer had thought about what laws she would have in her special book.

Joint best runner up for individual work in Key stage one Ibrahim from Tollgate Primary.

The judges also enjoyed reading
and looking at the work Ibrahim produced from his visit, excellent literacy skills were employed.

Joint best runner up for individual work in Key stage one Aaliyah from Portway Primary.

The judges also enjoyed looking at how Aaliyah had drawn her picture of the church using different art techniques.

Winners of the best class response in Key stage 1 was Class 1/2C – Park Primary for their Krishna faces the class created after visiting a local Temple.

The judges particularly liked the visual nature of these pieces of work

Winners of the best runner up class response in Key stage 1 was Class 2CW – Avenue Primary
for their class picture of Ganesh

The judges
particularly liked all the different elements of this art work on fabric.

Joint winners of the Best School at Key Stage 1 was Selwyn Primary for their creative and beautiful work in Year 1 from their visit to a Temple and Year 2's creation of stain glass windows from old carrier bags.

Key Stage
Two
winners

Winner of best individual work in Years 3&4 was Leile, 3L from Shaftesbury Primary – for her beautiful art work created out from her visit to a local Gurdwara.

Best
individual response runner up
Key Stage 2
Year 3&4
Monira Year 4 from Upton Cross
Primary - for the work she produced having visited a Buddhist Temple.

Winners of best class in Years 3&4 Kensington Year 3 class for their Pop-up Mosque cards and prayer mats, created after a visit to a local Mosque. The judges loved the vibrant colours and use of pastel crayons.

Winners of best runner up class in Years 3&4 Selwyn 4S for their art work created from their visit to a Gurdwara.

The judges loved the sue of different mediums to represent feelings and beliefs about their visit.

Joint best
individual work from Years 5&6
Maryam, Year 6 from Shaftesbury Primary, for her poem that she wrote having visited three different places of worship.

Joint best
individual work from Years 5&6
Anika & Janzila, 5/6W
from Upton
Cross Primary, for their letter in reply as the editor of Newham
magazine.

Joint winner of best runner up individual work in Years 5&6 was Fahmida, Year 6 from Portway Primary. The judges particularly like the way in which Fahmida had produced an excellent booklet that would help understand symbolism in a church.

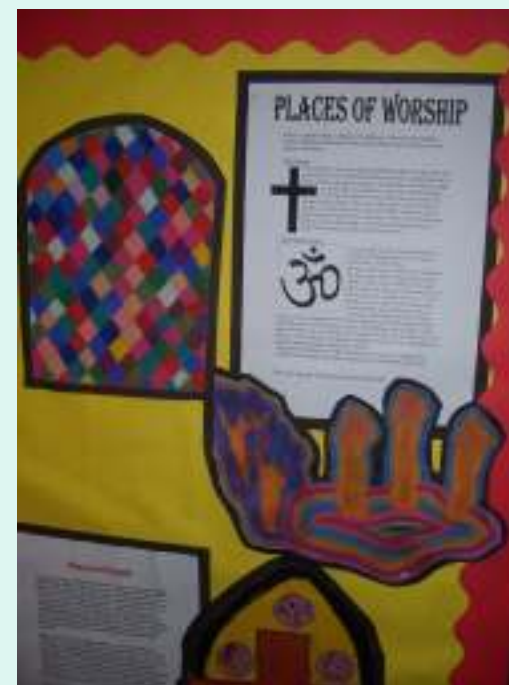

Joint winner of best runner up individual work in Years 5&6 were Yasmin, Storm & Ellie May, Year 6 from Grange Primary. The judges particularly like the way in the girls had worked collaboratively with such great details on making their model of the Church.

Winners of best class in Year 5&6 was Shaftesbury
Year 6 class for their wonderful art work, written accounts and poetry
created from visiting a number of places of worship

Winners of runner up
best class in Year 5&6 was Selwyn Year 5 class for their work and creativity on Buddhism,
and Carpenters
for their Year
rap.

Best school for Key Stage 2 Elmhurst Primary for all their excellent work across every year group in the school going out on visits to places of worship and the high quality of all the work submitted for this competition.

Key Stage
Three
winners

Eleanor Smith
Year 7 students won the best school response
at Key Stage Three for the pictures they took and printed out from their visit to St John's church

For next year...

- The competition runs again next year with visit a place of worship week taking place from 1st-5th March 2010
- Entries fro the competition need to be taken to Credon centre already mounted ready for display by Friday 2nd April 2010
- The prize giving event where prizes will be awarded will be on Thursday 10th June from 4-6pm at Credon centre