Key Stage
Two
winners

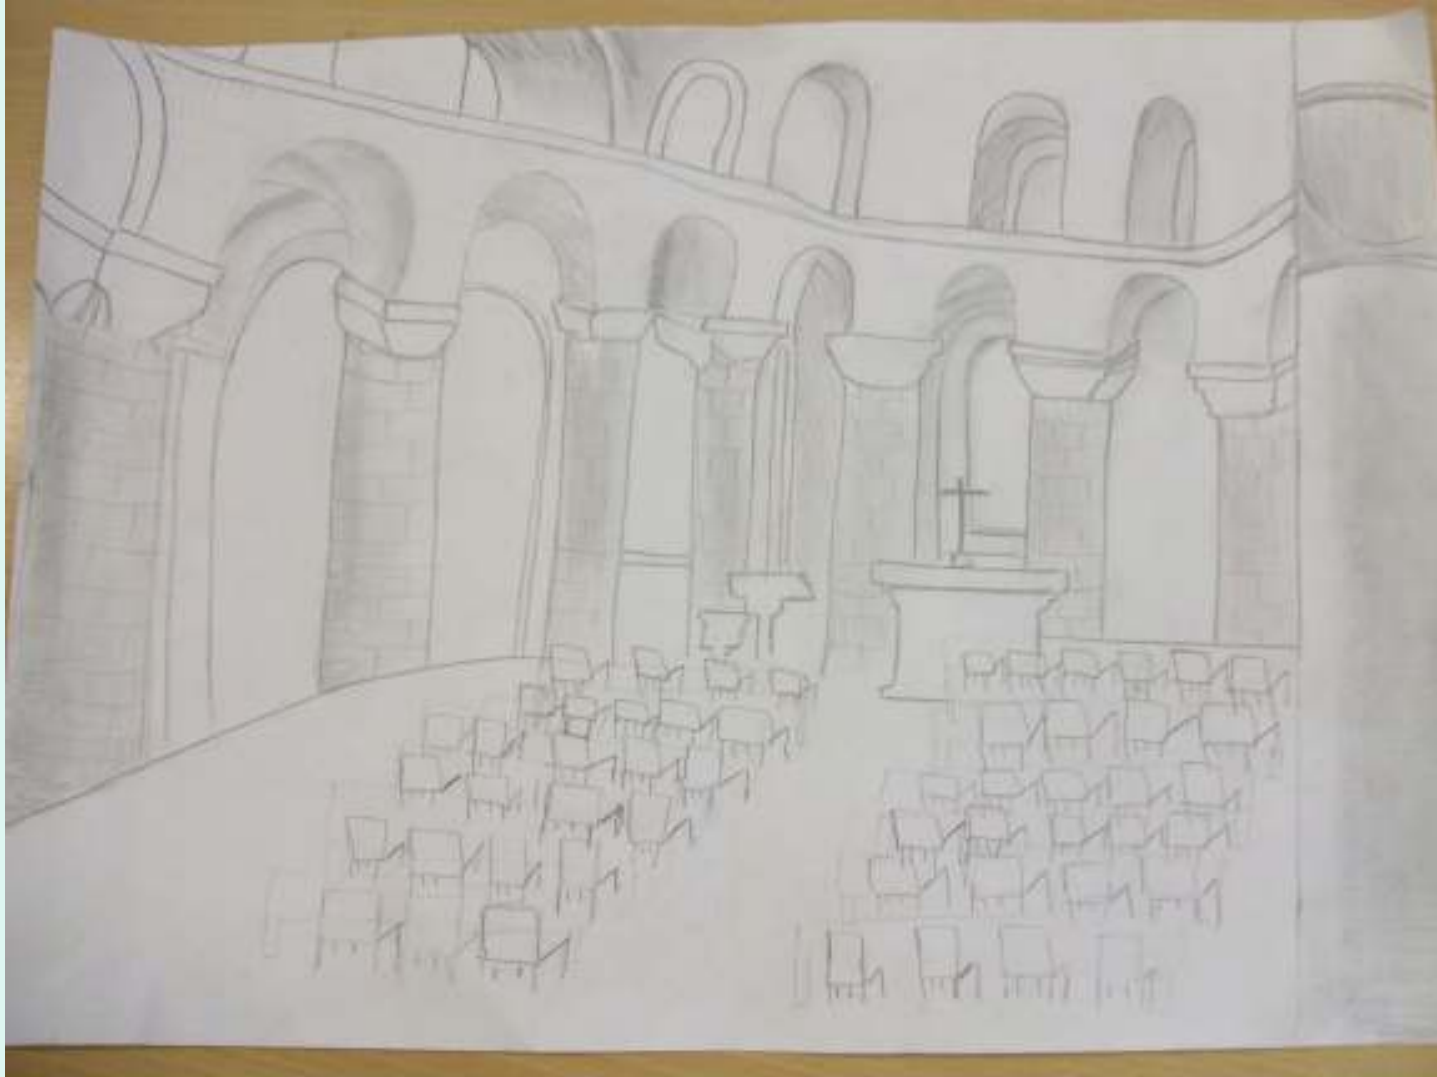

Dear Dear,

I was anxiously standing at the top of the steep, stoney staircase while Haashim was saying "Don't fall off!" When I was nervously creeping down the narrow staircase I felt much more brave and excited so I speeded up and entered the crypt. Then I saw the amazing sight of the precious plates, cups, spoons and medals but the thing that especially made me gasp was the fascinating models of the boats and the Roman London. After a few moments I turned around and I glanced at the most precious gifts of all the gold, frankincense and myrrh. I always knew the story of the three kings giving baby Jesus those presents and I knew what gold looked like because I saw my mum's golden ring however I had never seen frankincense and myrrh. Thank you Mr. Diary for listening to me goodbye.

The Synagogue

Peaceful it stays,
A place to love,
Gleams like a star,
The house of worship,
Beautiful, charming and
Elegant it always is.

The palace of Jews,
More than a dream,
Better than gold,
A sign of heaven,
A precious jewel,
An astonishing sight.

Last week Beech Class went to the Hindu Temple in Green Street. When we got there Lavanya invited us in and we had to take our shoes off.

Then we went in and we sat on mats and we listened to Lavanya talk about Krishna. Then we had a drink and a sweet. A man came and he played the drum and sang. Me and Kemani clapped.
